

...Jennifer Thomson

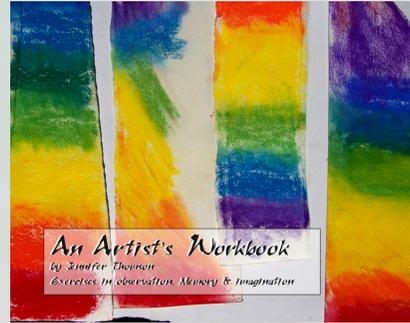

is an established fine artist and experienced teacher. She studied in the traditional art schools and colleges, received her BFA in painting. Jennifer traveled to Switzerland in the early 80s to study with Beppe Assenza the art of painting, J.W. Goethe's color theory, and Rudolf Steiner's color indications, all of which she continues to develop.

From 1985, Jennifer directed a painting school in New York for 11 years, teaching students from North America, Europe and Asia. In 1996, she moved to Denver, Colorado. She traveled to teach in various art programs in other states as well as giving art classes in Denver. Jennifer has taught art for 40 years. She presently resides in Crestone, Colorado with her husband. Recently, Jennifer wrote a book for artists, "An Artist's Workbook".

"An Artist's Workbook".

Jennifer's approach to teaching is an inner search for truth and balance of soul though art. She has exhibited widely in the USA.

Her work is found in private collections in Europe, Asia and USA.

Philip Incao, MD began practicing anthroposophic medicine in 1973 and is still practicing, learning, teaching and writing articles for various periodicals which examine the unsolved questions of why and how we become unhealthy, and the roles that illness and healing play in modern life.

Bruce Pennetti is our cook. He will prepare for us organic, vegetarian snacks and lunches each day. Bruce is a former Waldorf class teacher, who has also enjoyed years of catering and hospitality work. A musician as well, you may hear some afternoon harp music in the air as you are painting.

A studio visit to Noah Baen,
Environmental Artist

Landscape Painting Retreat

2019
August 15 thru 18

Experience Nature
through Art
with Jennifer Thomson

Nature always wears
the Colors of the spirit!

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Our 4 day intensive work!

We will develop an ongoing watercolor veil painting; try playful techniques with ink and gouache, practice composition on site. Explore animal life in the landscape through painting.

This retreat is meant to foster a love for nature through an art experience. We will enliven our perceptions and awaken our senses by artistically entering nature's world. The goal of this retreat is to experience how the world of nature can inspire us to create art.

Daily Schedule

- 9am...Ongoing veil painting
- 10:30 to 11:00am...Snack break
- 11:00am to 12:30pm...Demo on trees, water, horses, playful exploration using different textures to create imaginary landscapes, practice time.
- 12:30 to 2:30pm...Lunch & Break
- 2:30pm to 4:15pm...Outdoor painting will be in various locations taking impulses from morning's work to develop a composition.
- 4:15...Snack and class is ended

8am to 6:30pm....studio is open for you.

Evening Presentation:

Health in our Culture by Philip Incao

Quote:

'I attended Jennifer's Landscape Painting Retreat two years ago. I told everyone, "I'm not an artist I just came because my wife asked me to. I'm just a 'doodler.'" I certainly was sure I couldn't do landscapes. But I was surprised at what I was able to accomplish.

Last year I joined my wife and attended again but this time I did it because I wanted to learn more and advance my art. I now say, "I'm an artist." I love the landscapes that emerge in my work! And I love and appreciate the inspired training that Jennifer offers!'

Work Space:

Sun Studio & outdoors into the Sangre de Cristo Mountains to experience Nature through direct observation.

Material:

Watercolor, gouache, charcoal, ink

Location:

Sun Studio in Crestone, Colorado

Tuition:

$335 includes 4 organic veggie lunches, snacks & art supplies

Deposit:

$100 nonrefundable, to reserve a space

Accommodations:

Air B&B or camping

www.crestonecolorado.com

www.crestoneeagle.com

Sign up & info:

Jennifer Thomson, 719-937-7694

Sunstudio.thomson1@gmail.com

www.jenniferthomson.net

PO Box 894, Crestone, Colorado 81131

