

Landscape Painting Retreat August 26 -29

Experience "Nature
through Art" with Jennifer Thomson

The landscape Retreat
is about change;
experiencing another way of working. It isn't a 'how to' retreat. It is a time to explore new color exercises, ideas
and playfulness.
Sometimes one has to walk through ugliness
to find anew.
Sometimes we have to stretch further in art to find a new approach to our usual way of working.

Mornings for example, explore a
fall exercise: Tint
paper orange in areas
creating a color mood.
Bring colors; reds,
yellows, blues to wakefulness. Balance
colors compositionally.
Find an inward glow of light. Use greys and black to enhance the glow. White in gesture for trees ...what next?

Afternoons, inspired by John Marin's (1870-1970) & Emil Nolde's (1867-1956) art, exercises of their techniques &
composition will be practiced and applied to our own artwork.

Work space: Sun Studio & outdoors
into the Sangre de Cristo Mountains to experience Nature
through direct observation.

Daily class: 9 am to 4:30 pm
